

Study plan

Update October 2016

As a THM student, you are required to obtain 188 credits to complete your study
In order to guide you to obtain these credits within four years, we have created a study plan for your reference.

This study plan assumes students have passed all requirements on the MUIC entrance examination.

For students who begin with Advanced English Communication Course, they are required to complete the study with 184 credits.

Important messages

- According to the student handbook, the minimum course load for full-time students is 12 credit hours, including non-credit class hours. The standard course load per trimester is 16 credit hours. However, students can take up to maximum 22 credit hours per trimester, subjected to advisor's judgment. The maximum course load during summer is 8 credit hours.
 - The study plan is designed without including the summer term.
 - Extra times/trimester might be required for students who
 - Have to take the non-credit subjects in the first year;
 - Have to repeat the subject;
 - Change the major to THM division in the late years.
