Portfolio preparation for the Communication Design program:

Please prepare your portfolio accordingly and bring it on the interview date.

Arrange 10-12 pieces/ projects/works in sequence of pages as you see best fit.
You should include 5-6 observational drawings and 5-6 designs or artworks in the portfolio.

For Physical Portfolio, Face-to-Face Interview:

All work should be presented in a flat portfolio large enough to accommodate everything without folding. You should not include any additional documentation such as certificates, awards, or transcripts, or anything that would distract from your work, such as decorative elements, frames, or mats. Your portfolio should be neat and well-organized.

Submit your work in its original format such as, drawings on paper, paintings on canvas, digitally printed designs, etc. Do Not scan or make any alteration on your original work. Three-dimensional work, such as sculptures, packaging design, or models may be shown in photographs.
