Electives can be chosen from any approved higher-level Intercultural Studies courses.

I. Program Specification

Students in this major can tailor their studies according to their abilities and interests. They should determine their concentration in close consultation with a faculty advisor.

Electives can be chosen from any approved higher-level Intercultural Studies courses.

A. Foreign Language and Culture (FLC) Concentration

For the practical reason of developing language competence, students who choose to study one language in depth need to take all ten language courses in progression, commencing in their first trimester of study. (Please note that only complete beginners or students with maximum level of A 1/ Level 3/N 5 level language skills in their chosen language are admitted to the Foreign Language and Culture Concentration). In addition, these students are required to take Elementary I- and II-level courses of a different regional language, and at least one additional course from the Foreign Language and Culture focus.

Other than these specific requirements, FLC students are free to choose their remaining courses from any concentration. Students in this concentration would qualify for a B.A. Intercultural Studies (Foreign Language and Culture).

An external evaluation of their respective language proficiency through an independent evaluation body (Goethe Institute, Alliance Française, DELF-Institute, Hanban, Japanese Institute) is required for students in the Foreign Language and Culture concentration. A passing grade of the respective language proficiency test (German, Spanish and French B 1 level, Japanese N 4 level and for Chinese HSK level 4) is necessary for graduating with a B.A. Intercultural Studies (Foreign Language and Culture).

B. Other Concentrations:

*Critical Studies of English (CSEL);
Ethics, Philosophy and Economics (EPE), or No Concentration*

Students who do not choose the FLC concentration may take at least 9 of their elective concentration courses, including the 4 compulsory courses of the respective concentration, from either the Critical Studies of English (CSEL) or Ethics, Philosophy and Economics (EPE) concentrations. These students would qualify for a B.A. in Intercultural Studies (CSEL) or else a B.A. in Intercultural Studies (EPE).

Students who choose not to pursue any particular concentration are expected to take six elective major courses from each of the Foreign Language and Culture, CSEL and EPE concentrations, each including any four compulsory courses.

All students of Intercultural Studies are required to complete their final project and written presentation in their last academic year in any two higher-level courses (including ICCU 350 Independent Project in Humanities and Languages). The Intercultural Studies advisors will assist students in developing the final project in conjunction with the lecturers of the respective chosen courses.

Note: Other Approved Courses.
